

Art Center To Show Film

'Painters Painting,' a two hour film on first and second generation New York painters, will be shown at the South Shore Art Center at 103 Ripley Road, Sunday, April 15 at 7 p.m.

The Film is the next best thing to a personal visit to the studios of Stella, Jasper Johns, Olitsky, Helen Frankenthaler, de Kooning, Newman, Poons and others of the New York scene and is an opportunity to see artists at work and hear their viewpoint.

A donation is requested to help support the Center's educational programs. For information, call 383-9548 between noon and 9 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The starting day for children's classes at the South Shore Art Center on 103 Ripley Road has been changed to Wednesday, April 25 for Children's Clay with March Baskin and to Thursday, April 26 for Children's Art Workshop (Drawing and Painting) with Syma Komarin.

Both classes are for ages 7-11 and meet from 3:30 to 5 p.m. for six weeks. The class fee includes supplies. For information, telephone 383-9548 between noon and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Community Center To Sponsor Trip

The Cohasset Community Center will sponsor a trip to the Museum of Fine Arts on April 26, an early release day for the Cohasset schools.

The program is for children in Grades 1-5. It will include a trip to the museum galleries to explore various parts of the collection and participation in a workshop in which children will create their own art. The workshop will be conducted by museum staff.

The bus will leave the center at 1:30 p.m. and return by 5 p.m. Chaperones are welcome. Reservations must be made by April 23. For further information and for reservations call 383-6625, 383-0752 or 383-0088. A fee will be charged to cover the cost.
